Reduced Rate Info

- DPR offers a reduced rate for summer camps to DC residents who qualify. Visit dprsummercamp.com to find the online application.
- After completing the form, applicants will be contacted by DPR to schedule an appointment to provide the required proof of residency and income.
- Qualifying families will receive either a 50% or 75% discount, depending on income level.
- The application is only for a reduced rate and does NOT secure a spot in camp.
- To receive a reduced rate, residents MUST be approved for the reduced rate BEFORE registering for camp.

Events

Visit <http://dpr.events> for information about upcoming events and to sign up to get notifications.

Permits

Planning a meeting, practice, game or event and need a great location? Look no further!

The DC Department of Parks and Recreation is proud to provide the public with wonderful facilities, parks, fields, and pools.

A permit is required for any organized picnic or activity of 10 or more participants.

No permit is final until an application is submitted, processed, paid in full, and any additional requested documentation is received.

Visit <http://dpr.dc.gov/permits> or call 202-673-7647 for complete information on how to get a permit for your special event.

Ready to Play Update

- Update Includes
 - A draft set of four goals with 13 strategies and 85 specific actions;
 - A draft Equity Framework;
 - The results from the Ready2Play Citywide Survey.
 - Visit Ready2PlayDC.com to review these.
 - A draft Capital Blueprint to be released in the Spring.

Thank you!
